(2) Where at any time within a period of five years before the notified date, any person has converted any agricultural land held by him into a non-agricultural land, then, the land so converted shall be deemed to be agricultural land on the notified date for the purpose of this Regulation.

(3) Where on or after the 24th January, 1971, but before the notified date,—

(a) any declaration of dissolution of marriage has been made by a court on an application made on or after the 24th January, 1971; or

(7) If the Tribunal decides that any transfer or creation of trust had been effected in anticipation of, and with a view to avoiding or defeating the objects of this Regulation and if as a result of such transfer or creation of trust, the holding of the person or the family unit, that remains on the notified date, does not exceed the extent of land that he or the family unit is liable to surrender, then, the Tribunal shall treat the entire holding thus left over as the extent of land to be surrendered under the provisions of this Regulation by the person or the family unit, as the case may be

7. (1) Every person, whose holding on the notified date together with any land transferred by him on or after the 24th January, 1971, whether by way of sale (other than a bona fide sale under a registered deed for valuable consideration), gift, usufructuary mortgage, exchange, settlement, surrender or in any other manner whatsoever and any land in respect of which a trust has been created by him on or after the 24th January, 1971, exceeds the specified limit, shall, within thirty days from the notified date or within such extended period as the Government may notify in this behalf, furnish a declaration in respect of his holding together with such land, to the Tribunal containing such particulars and in such form as may be prescribed.

Explanation I.—Where the land is held or is deemed to be held by a minor or lunatic or an idiot or other person subject to like disability, not being a member of the family unit, the declaration shall be furnished by the guardian, manager or other person in charge of the property of such person; and where the land is held or is deemed to be held by a company, firm, association or other corporate body, the declaration shall be furnished by any person competent to act for such company, firm, association or corporate body in this behalf

Explanation II.—Where the land is held or is deemed to be held by a family unit, the declaration shall be furnished by a person in management of the property of such family unit and the declaration so furnished shall be binding on all the members of the family unit:

Provided that the Tribunal shall, in the event of a dispute as to the declaration furnished by the person in management, give to the other members of the family unit an opportunity of making their representations or of adducing evidence, if any, in respect of such declaration and shall consider such representations and evidence before determining the ceiling area under this Regulation.

Explanation III.—In this sub-section, "specified limit" means,--

(a) in the case of wet land—7·20 hectares (18 acres);

(b) in the case of dry land—18·00 hectares (45 acres), and for the purpose of computing the specified limit in a case where the holding of any person includes both wet land and dry land, one hectare of wet land shall be deemed to be equal to two and one-half hectares of dry land

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Tribunal shall have power to issue notice requiring any person holding land or residing within its jurisdiction who, it has reason to believe, holds or is deemed to hold land in excess of the ceiling area to furnish a declaration of his holding, or that of his family unit, under sub-section (1), within such period as may be specified in the notice not being less than fifteen days from the date of its communication, and such person shall furnish the declaration accordingly.

8. The Tribunal shall, on receipt of the declaration furnished or information obtained under section 7, publish the same, and make an inquiry, in such manner as may be prescribed, and pass orders determining whether the person holds or is deemed to hold on the notified date an extent of land in excess of the ceiling area and if so, the extent of land so held in excess as on that date.

Explanation.—Save as otherwise provided in this Regulation, in the case of a family unit, the number of members of the family unit shall be reckoned with reference to the notified date.

Surrender of land in certain cases

9. (1) If the extent of the holding of a person is in excess of the ceiling area, the person shall be liable to surrender the land held in excess.

(2) The Tribunal shall serve on every person, who is liable to surrender the land held in excess of the ceiling area under sub-section (1), a notice specifying therein the extent of land which such person has to surrender and requiring him to file a statement within such period not being less than fifteen days, as it may fix, indicating therein, full particulars of the lands which such person proposes to surrender.

(3) If the person on whom a notice is served under sub-section (2), files the statement referred to in that sub-section within the period fixed therefor, and the Tribunal is satisfied, after making such inquiry as it deems fit, that the proposed surrender of the land is in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation, it shall pass an order approving the surrender and the said land shall thereupon be deemed to have been surrendered by such person.

(4) If the person on whom a notice is served under sub-section (2) does not file the statement referred to in that sub-section within the period fixed therefor or files such statement within the period fixed but does not specify therein the entire extent of land which such person has to surrender, the Tribunal may, after giving an opportunity to the person concerned of being heard, itself select, in the former case the entire extent, and in the latter case, the balance of the extent which such person has to surrender, and pass an order to that effect, and thereupon the said land or balance of land, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been surrendered by such person.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding anything in this section, it shall be open to the Tribunal to refuse to accept the surrender of any land—

(i) which has been converted into non-agricultural land and has been rendered incapable of being used for purposes of agriculture;

(ii) the surrender of which is not acceptable on account of a dispute as to the title to the land or an encumbrance on the land or on account of the land being in the possession of any person mentioned in sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (v) of clause (m) of section 2 or on account of the land proposed to be surrendered becoming inaccessible by reason of its severance from the remaining part of the holding;

and the Tribunal shall, in every such case, serve a notice on the person concerned requiring him to surrender any other land in lieu thereof; and thereupon the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such surrender:

Provided that where the land proposed to be surrendered under this section is burdened with a mortgage, the Tribunal may, on an application made by the mortgagor with the consent of the mortgagee, by order, transfer such mortgage from the land so proposed to be surrendered to the residuary holding of the mortgagor or to any part thereof.

(b) Where the land so surrendered under clause (a) is also not acceptable to the Tribunal, the Tribunal shall, after giving an opportunity to the person concerned of being heard, select any other land in lieu thereof, and thereupon, the said land shall be deemed to have been surrendered by such person.

(6) Before passing an order under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) or sub-section (5), the Tribunal shall publish the particulars of the land proposed to be surrendered or selected, in such manner as may be prescribed and consider the objections, if any, received in pursuance of such publication.

Explanation I.—In the case of a surrender of land of a family unit,—

(a) where the extent to be surrendered by each member is agreed upon by or on behalf of all the members of the family unit, the extent surrendered by each such member shall be in accordance with such agreement, so however, that the extent surrendered by any female member of the family unit shall not exceed the extent which she would be liable to surrender in proportion to the total land held by her to the lands held by all the members of the family unit;

(b) where there is no such agreement, the extent surrendered shall be in proportion to the lands held by each member of the family unit;

(c) where any land is held in the name of any female member of the family unit, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that such female member is the owner of such land.

Explanation II.—Where any person surrenders any land being the whole or part of his share of the land held by a co-operative society or firm, the share of such person in such co-operative society, or firm, as the case may be, shall, to the extent required for such surrender, be deemed to have been correspondingly reduced.

Explanation III.—Where any person required to surrender any land under this Regulation is a member of a co-operative society or firm, he may be required to surrender the land, if any, held by him separately and may then be required to surrender from his share of the land held by the co-operative society, or firm only to make up the deficiency.

Explanation IV.—Where it is proposed to accept the surrender by any person of his share of the lands held by a joint family, co-operative society or firm of which he is a member, the lands so surrendered shall be selected in accordance with any agreement that may be arrived at between such person and the other members of such joint family, co-operative society or firm, and where there is no such agreement, the share of such person in the lands so held shall, as far as practicable, be determined pro rata with reference to each class of land held by such joint family, co-operative society or firm.

Provided that any claim or liability enforceable against that land immediately before the date of vesting in the Government may be enforced only—

(i) against the amount payable under this Regulation in respect of such land; and

(5) The owner to whom the possession of the land reverts under sub-section (4) shall be liable to discharge the claim enforceable against
